

(Answered.)

Anti-Slavery Society,
Office, 27, New Broad Street,

London, June 22nd 1877.
E.C.

W. L. Garrison Esq

Pearce,

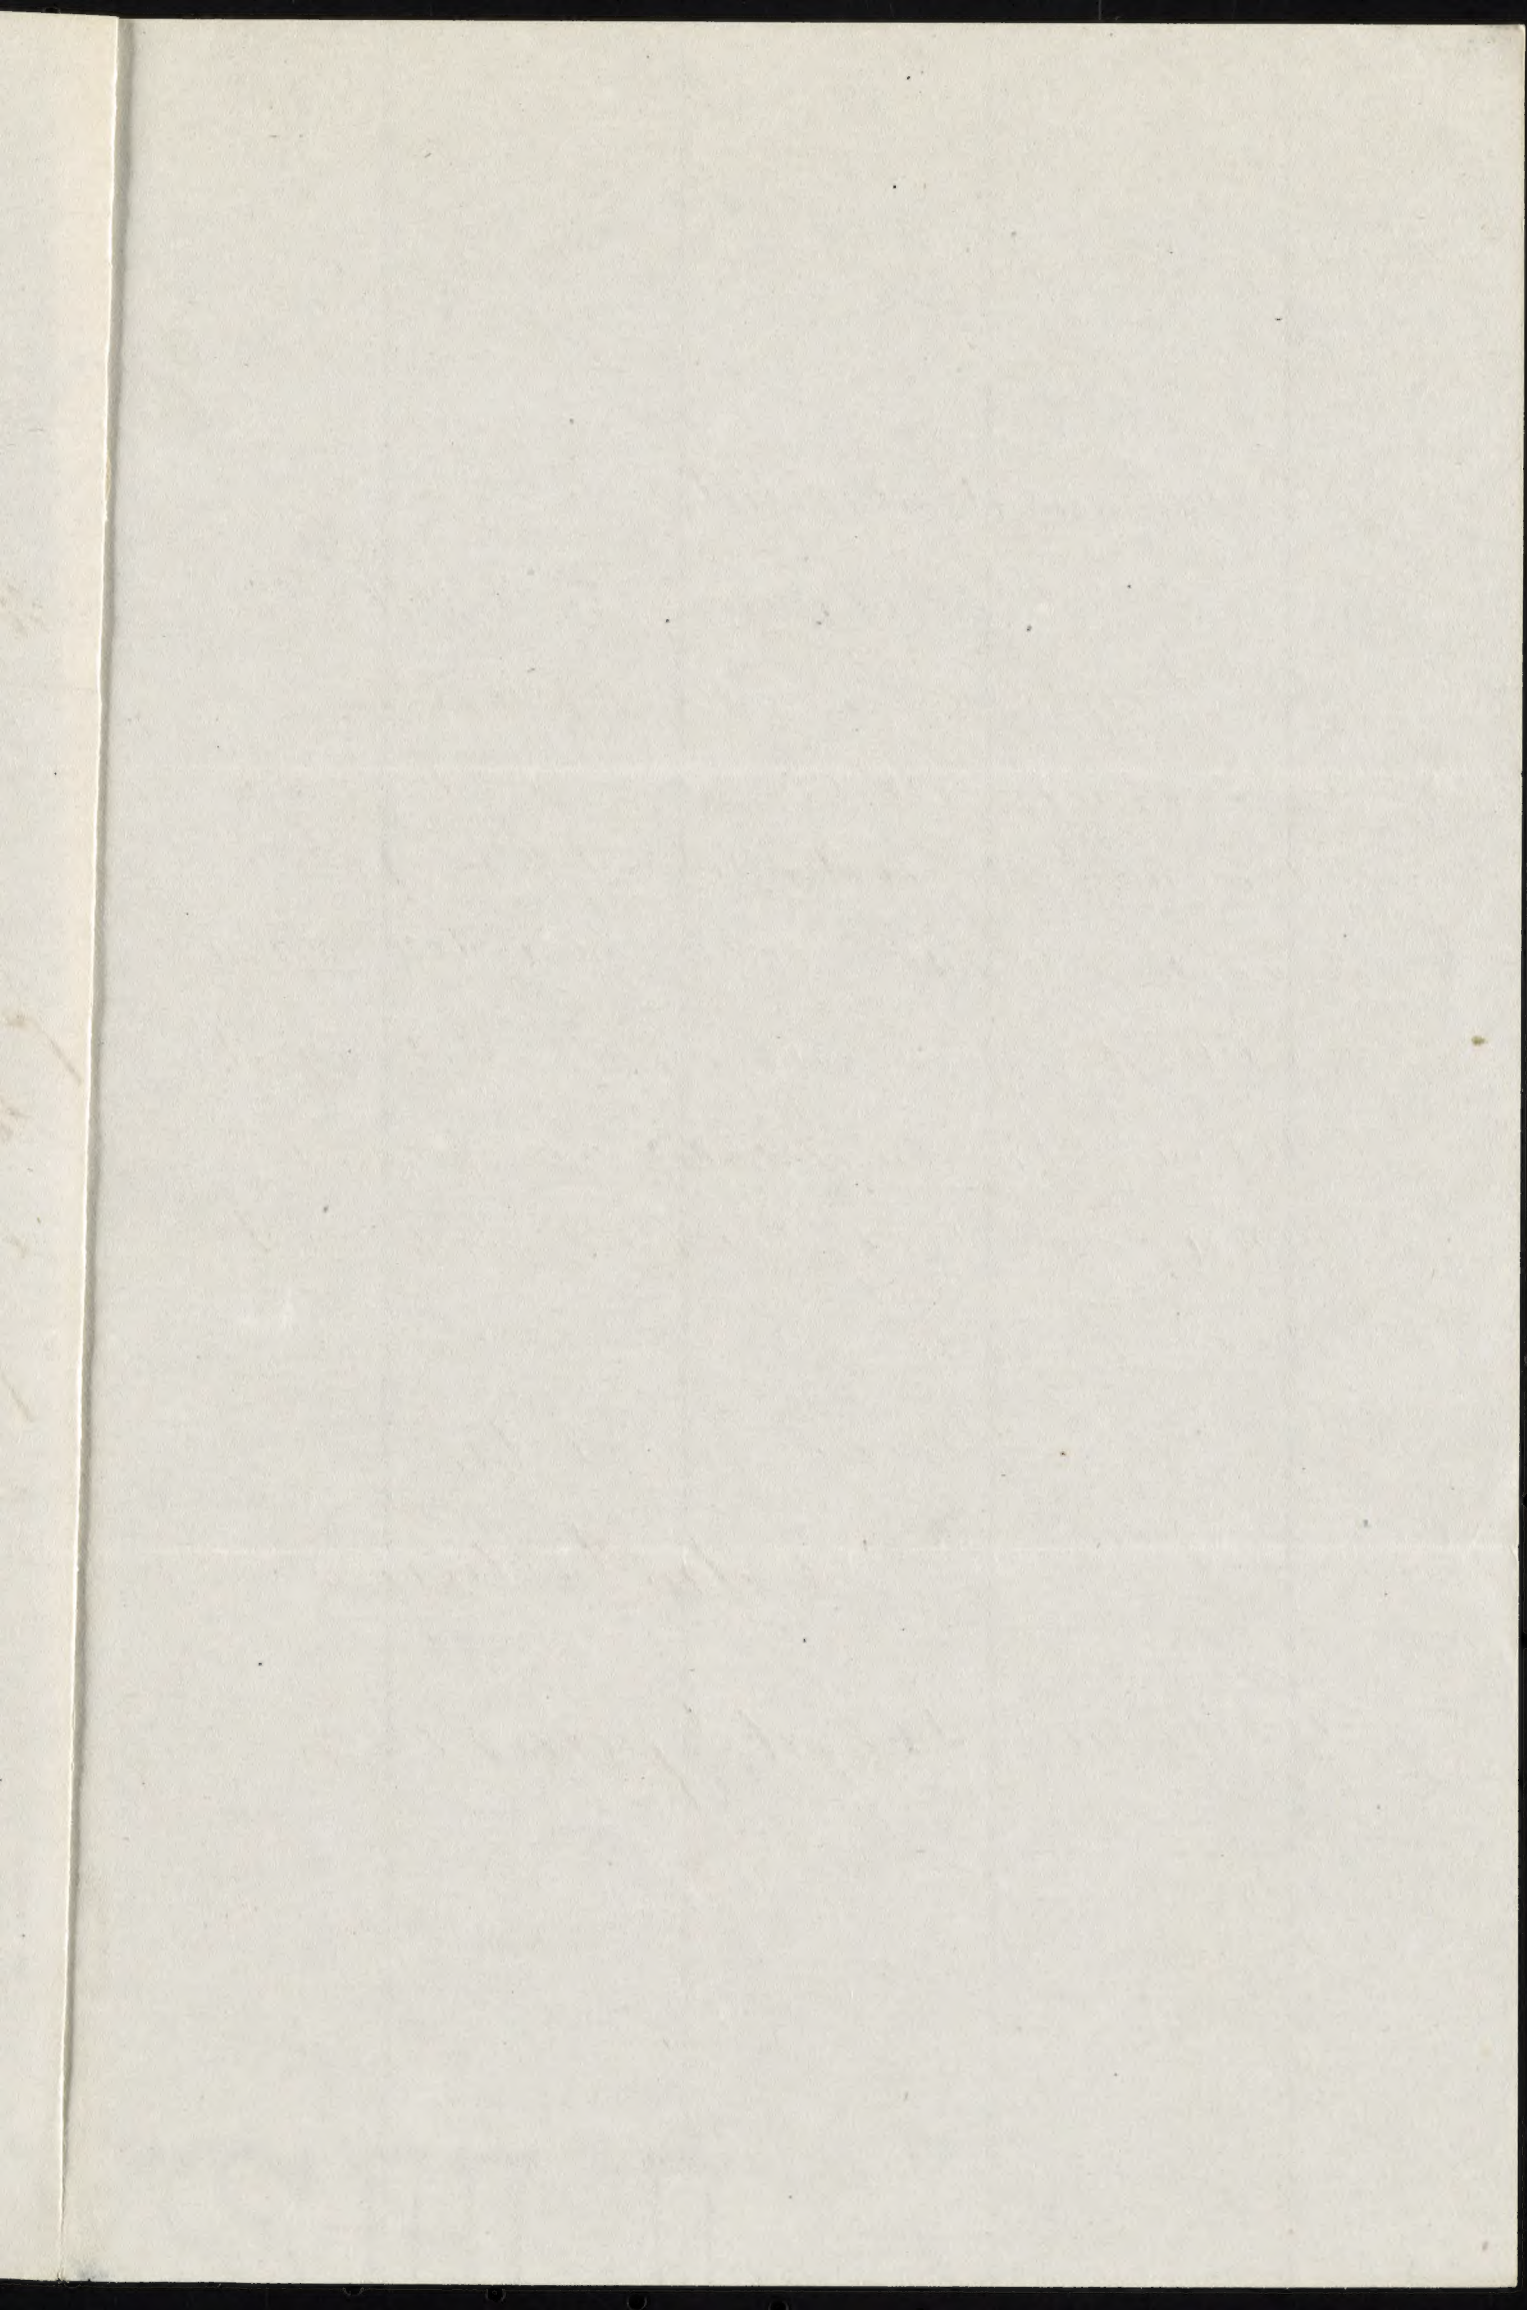

132

Having heard, with much pleasure, that you were willing to meet some of those who have laboured hard and long in our good cause, I have much pleasure in inviting you, to a breakfast on Tuesday morning next at Ten o'clock, at Devonshire House Hotel, Bishopsgate Street.

Believe me, on behalf of the Committee

Yours faithfully
Aaron Puzos

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Coleridge's Answer

Allow me to add to the official note of our Secretary that we will send you a printed prospectus concerning the matter, and asked you to send us new to ourselves to send you as they can send it at once notice

I am most truly yours
Wm. Lloyd Garrison

Wm. Lloyd Garrison